The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about January 22, 2013, November 13, May 8, 2012, and May 17, 2011, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

2.40(b)(2) Attending Veterinarian and Adequate Veterinary Care....repeated failure to establish and maintain programs of veterinarian care that use appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries

2.126(b) Access and inspection of records and property....repeated failure to make a responsible adult available to accompany APHIS officials during the inspection process (November 13, 2012, May 8, 2012 and May 17, 2011)

3.6(a)(2)(i) Primary Enclosures....repeated failure to construct and maintain primary enclosures so that they have no sharp points or edges that could injure the animals

3.11(d) Cleaning, Sanitization, Housekeeping, and Pest Control ...repeated failure to maintain an effective program for the control of insects, external parasites affecting dogs, and birds and mammals that are pests so as to promote the health and well-being of the animals and reduce contamination by pests in animal areas

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
